TO: Washington DeMolay
FROM: Bro. Luke A. Walker, State Master Councilor
DATE: October 9, 2016
RE: State Senior Councilor and State Junior Councilor

My brothers, as we look forward to continuing our brotherhood and accomplishments of the 2016-2017 Washington State DeMolay term; we are always working for the future and continued legacy of leadership and growth in DeMolay.

Pursuant to and in accordance with our Washington State DeMolay By-Laws, Article 6, Section 10, your current State Junior Councilor, Samuel A. Walker has accepted the opportunity to succeed to the office of State Senior Councilor for the remainder of this term. I am excited to work with Sam as he has shown exceptional and prodigious work during his time as an Elected State Officer. I am confident he will serve Washington DeMolay well in his new position.

With the vacancy of State Junior Councilor created by this move, it becomes my duty to fill this office by an Active Member of Washington DeMolay. Following several weeks of deliberation, consultation with the State Dad Advisor, and approval of the Executive Officer, it is my pleasure to announce Brother Colton M. Jenkins of Tacoma Chapter has been appointed to State Junior Councilor for the remainder of this term. Colton has continuously proven his passion for our Order, capability to assist his brothers, and effective leadership, I am confident he will serve Washington DeMolay fittingly in his new appointment.

Please join me in congratulating these two brothers and thanking them for accepting the challenges to further our goals in DeMolay. The Installation for the offices of State Junior Councilor and State Senior Councilor will take place next Saturday, October 15th at Centennial Lodge No. 25 in Snohomish, during our Statewide Investiture Day. Join us in celebrating this exciting time in continuing our mission to level up DeMolay in Washington.

NEW - DeMolay Advisor Policy when attending youth events

Effective Immediately - designate who you are an Advisor for...

It has been brought to my attention and I want to comply with our other Masonic Family organizations as we all continue to work together for the betterment of our youth. Therefore, I am issuing the following Washington State DeMolay Policy regarding Certified DeMolay Advisors attending Masonic Youth Events.

Where as many of our DeMolay Advisors (including myself) wear several hats in the Masonic Family including but not limited to - Rainbow Advisory Boards, Rainbow Dad's, Job's Daughter CAV Adults, Masonic Lodge Officers, and as such attend various events and activities representing our organizations, but are also there as the designated Adult responsible for Youth attending in an official capacity (ie. a DeMolay Advisor taking DeMolay Members to an event).

Where as our Adult Advisor pool for all three youth groups has shrunk, we have seen more and more "dual & tri" Adults being responsible for Youth Members from multiple groups all at the same event. This has been a challenge for those running the event as well as those attending the event. I have been there in both capacities and know that is it tough to think like a DeMolay Advisor dealing with boys, then having to switch over the brain to think like a Job's Daughter or Rainbow Adult dealing with the girls. While we all have similar rules and regulations, there are fundamental differences that go along with giving 100% attention to being a teacher, counselor, advisor, parent, and adult when talking to and about our three youth groups.

Therefore, effective immediately, before attending any Masonic Youth Group event and/or activity, as a DeMolay Advisor you need to declare who (which group) you will be attending said function as the designated Adult responsible for Youth Members. (For example the upcoming WA Cup event, if you are bringing DeMolay Members and attending as their designated DeMolay Advisor, then you cannot ALSO be the designated Adult for either Rainbow Girls or Job's Daughters attending that event.) This policy is not meant to restrict anyone from attending anything, it is to allow all Adults to clearly state which Masonic Youth Group they are responsible for at that event and give 100% attention to those Youth and help them have the greatest experience possible. I am aware that this designation may change from event to event depending on which group you have committed to being the responsible Adult for and that this will take some pre-planning for you and each group. We can make this work as long as we work together for our Youth!

Advisor Training Now Online

We encourage all current Advisors to go online and take it!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - KANSAS CITY, MO.

DeMolay International is proud to launch the online DeMolay Advisor Training program!

To access the DeMolay Advisor Training Program simply log in to eScribe.DeMolay.org and click on the Advisor Training tab at the top of the screen.

If a potential Advisor does NOT have an eScribe profile, meaning they are not a Senior DeMolay, former Advisor, or an Honorary Legion of Honor recipient they will need to register for a new profile. Registration is simple, go to DeMolay.org/AdvisorTraining.

This six module online training course is now the only officially approved Advisor Training course for new and continuing Advisors. These six modules consist of an Advisor Training program intro, how DeMolay operates, the role of the Advisory Council, Risk Management & Youth Protection policies and procedures, and concludes with a summation of resources at the Advisors' disposal. Each module is between five and 20 minutes and concludes by the participant answering a set of questions. These questions are not ranked or scored, rather the questions show what they have just learned in the video and the reference materials.

Completing the DeMolay Advisor Training program does not mean participants are automatically DeMolay Advisors. All potential Advisors still must complete the Advisor Application and background checks and submitted as they have been in the past. Soon you will have a place on the WADEMOLAY site that you can go to and fill in your forms online and follow a step by step process to get new adults certified to be Advisors in your local Chapters. Until then, please be patient. In the mean time if you have questions about how to handle a new adult, please reach out to your Region Deputy or the jurisdictional office.
